Suggested Uses

Orange Carpaccio with Orange-Flower Water and Pistachios

Orange-flower water is very potent, but a couple of drops can make a simple fruit plate feel a little exotic. Don't worry if you don't have any on hand; the salad is lovely without it too.

Sesame Ice Cream with Orange-Blossom Caramel

Nutty sesame and decadent caramel seem a little bit lighter when orange blossom is in the mix. Too much orange blossom water can make a dish taste like soap: A little bit goes a long way.
